

Blue Knights Big Horn Run June 21 - 26, 2018

I have been planning this trip and checking motels and I am finding that rooms are going fast. We are going to the Yellowstone area in June so it is a no brainer that rooms would be at a premium, not to mention price. This is what I have found and suggest that if you are just slightly considering going that you make a reservation you can always cancel.

I took the liberty of reserving rooms in Livingston, MT as they had the best rate and only a few rooms left. I reserved 7 rooms all 2 queen beds. In this case the sooner I know you are going the better to make sure I have enough rooms reserved. I will have the route laid out soon and inform you all. Marsha
