Please include with this application an original essay, between 500 to 1,500 words on the topic:

2015 Topic

There has recently been high profile civil unrest, and terrorist attacks, in several areas around the world. What reaction should be taken and by whom, law enforcement professionals or the military? Or should they coordinate their efforts to present a united front? As a law enforcement officer living in an area suffering from these problems would this have an effect on how you perform your duties or would you let the wishes of the protestors and the radical ideology of terrorists supersede? Explain.

This essay is required and will be graded during the selection process. The top 25% essays will be selected for inclusion in the lottery in which five winners will be chosen. Submissions become the property of Blue Knights® International and will not be returned. Winning essays may be reprinted in the Blue Knights® News.
